Family Literacy Event

Describe your program and its success

We started our event with a guest story reader and then we moved in groups from station to station. We had 6 stations in total, including: art, movement activities, story telling, book bag activity, science activities and a station run by a blind person. At the end we offered a light snack with sandwiches and pickles.

We invited a blind man and his dog to our event. He read in Braille and we held up the picture book. It was a very interesting and educational activity for the children.

What do you think was the biggest impact of this program?

We have had positive comments from parents and children on our literacy event. We saw a lot of interactions between different families that we tried to encourage.
