

Munch Minute

EASY INFORMATION FOR PARENTS

FOUNDATIONAL LITERACY SKILLS FOR PRESCHOOLERS

Before learning to read, children are:

- Drawing and scribbling
- Learning to identify numbers and letters
- Understanding the difference between pictures and words
- Familiar with the front and back of a book
- Following words left to right
- Learning to identify rhyming sounds and beginning sounds
- Comfortable identifying letter sounds and shapes

Source: Families Canada