

Bookmates' "LEARNING AS WE GO":

Literacy strategies to support young children during the COVID-19 pandemic

Connect via Zoom
Thursday, December 3, 2020
9:30 a.m.– 11:30 a.m.

This virtual workshop focuses on providing early literacy resources, tools and strategies that support the continued learning of children from birth to 6 during challenging times such as we are currently experiencing with the COVID-19 pandemic. Content includes:

- An environmental scan of the early years landscape as it relates to literacy & learning
- Possible long term repercussions of physical distancing on pre-school development
- The importance of relationships in a socially distant world
- A gathering of literacy strategies designed to mitigate some of the challenges facing children in 2020 and beyond
- A listing of suggested children's books we can read with our children to extend many of the concepts discussed in the workshop

Supporting resources will be emailed out to participants

Spaces are limited. Please contact Ingrid at ingrid@communities4families.ca to register

"Supported by Child and Youth Services, Department of Families"

